I'm writing to apply for the position of web-developer, as advertised on your website page. I believe I am ready to move up to the developer position.

In your job posting, you mention that you want to hire a web-developer who understands about Website and have soft skills. During I study at my school, I was learned a lot about this, programing and soft skills.

When I saw the job opening, I knew it was the perfect opportunity to offer you both my web skills and soft skills. I've included my resume so you can learn more my education background. Thanks you for your time and consideration.
